FOR THE SOUTHERN BANNER.
It has become so common among Editors of News Papers to invent and publish extraordinary cases of Absence of mind, wherein they make their subject to perform some improbable or unnatural feat,—such as to wash his shirt, and by mistake hanging himself up to dry, and put his neck into a Boot-Jack and pull off his head; that when a person happens to see a natural case such as I chanced to notice a short time since, he will not think any thing of it.
I found a friend standing at a corner of the Public Square with a knife in one hand and a stick in the other, I told him that he was wanted at the Court House, when to my surprise he threw the knife into the street and put the stick in his pocket and walked off. But occurrences of this kind are so frequent, that they may be seen every day. But a more striking instance came under my observation recently at the Tea Table. A gentleman entered the room with a letter in his hand, seated himself at the table and very deliberately took off his hat and put it between his knees and then carelessly reached for a slice of bread which he inspectively very minutely for some minutes then dropped it into his hat and commenced spreading butter on the letter which he laid on his plate as soon as he took his seat; and I believe that he would have tried to eat it if he had not been interrupted in his reverie by the servant handing him a cup of tea.

AFFAIRS AT NEW ORLEANS.
The Giraffe exhibition, down town, has shut up shop. Money went out faster than it came in. He ate more than he made.— He didn't earn his salt for his porridge.

filled benches, after a long absence.
The Calaboose is full of people, who have had to steal or starve.
The post office is covered with advertisements for situations. A meal a day and a

Empty stores "to let," and empty bellies in want of stores.
Poor people trapesing the streets, with their shoes tied up at the heel with red or white tape, pack-thread or rope-yarn.

THE GODOLPHIN ARABIAN.
Mr Eugene Sue, a person of high literary reputation in Paris, has published a history of this celebrated horse, by which it appears that he was a pure Barb, and not Arab, as his name would denote; that he was sent by the Bey of Tunis, with seven others, as a present to Louis the Fifteenth about the year 1731, but as the favorite of the Monarch was a short Suffolk punch, little attention was paid to the Barbary steed, and he was used for the lowest drudgery of the Royal Stables. He afterwards became the property of one of the cooks of the Royal household, who sold him to a person to draw a cart in Paris, from whom he was purchased by an Englishman, was brought to this country, and finally became the property of Lord Godolphin.—Bell's Life.

OHIO.—A bill, intended to prevent and punish the enticing of slaves to runaway, and to provide for the immediate surrender, when they had fled to Ohio, has passed the house of representatives of that state by a majority of 54 to 13. This is an act which has been greatly desired by the slave holding states.
There is a new claimant for the invention of steam navigation. Mr. Rumsey, of Ky., in a long speech in Congress a few days ago, claimed the honor for his uncle. He gives an account of a successful experiment made by Rumsey, with a steamboat of his own invention, on the Potomac, as early as the year 1786, one of the witnesses to which as cited in this speech, was Ashton Alexander of Baltimore. Not meeting suitable encouragement here, he went to England, where he became intimate with Fulton, and there died, in an apoplectic fit after having near brought his great discovery to perfection. He was a native of Maryland.

REMARKS.
Contrary to the general expectation, the river is again receding, after having risen from 12 to 15 feet above low water mark.— It has fallen about two feet in the last four days.
The stocks of up-country produce continue to increase, and most articles can be obtained in quantities, below our quotations.— Planters would do well, we think, now, to lay in their stock of provisions for the year.
PORK, in bulk, is plenty, and held at 7 cents per lb.
FLOUR, is offered at $7 to $7 1-4, by the lot, and $7 1-2 to $7 3-4 retail.
WHISKEY, has a fair demand at 50 to 55 cents per gal.
SUGAR—Holders seem inclined to advance their rates a little, and now ask 9 1-2 to 10 cents per barrel, 8 3-4 to 9 1-4 per hhd.
COFFEE, is steady at 15 1-2 to 18 cts for Rio and Havana, and 22 cts for Java.
CANDLES—For sperm we reduce our rates a little—the same may be done for Tallow—but the demand is good and stocks increased.
COTTON, continues in good demand, and is taken from the wagons at 9 to 12 1-2 cents.

bearing date January 1st 1839.—Having been induced to give such, in consideration of said Feltz' faithful compliance with certain conditions and promises, made by him at the time given. But which he has since conceived it to be more conducive to the taking of advantages of me, to refuse to comply with, and try to trade off or cancel into other hands unapprised of the circumstances of the case, or hold such up against me, regardless both of conditions, understandings, promises or obligations which he is under and I have therefore been constrained thus to notify the public to be on their guard, against such impositions, as I am resolved not to pay the same, as I not only have off-sets against such, but he is moreover considerably indebted to me, as I can make appear on a fair and equitable settlement.

The noblest acquisition of mankind is speech, and the most useful art is WRITING.
PRACTICAL PENMANSHIP, TAUGHT by J. Chaney.—This system embraces the most simple and comprehensive Rules and Exercises, for the speedy attainment of a free, bold and permanent CURRENT HAND WRITING, as adapted in its modifications to private life, the man of business, the Student and the Ladies.
The subscriber respectfully tenders his services as a teacher of this highly useful art. Having taught with great success in various parts of the Union (and recently in this town) his superior and easily acquired system of Penmanship, to the satisfaction of pupil and parent, he feels conscious that this favorable opportunity will not pass unheeded by the enlightened citizens of Holly Springs. 'Tis unnecessary to descant upon the importance of the art.—Every person is aware of its advantages; and, indeed, no one is fully qualified to transact the ordinary business of life, unless he writes an easy, rapid and graceful hand.—For further particulars enquire at the Union House.
Mr. C. will execute every kind of ornamental writing, such as Diplomas, Records, Visiting cards, &c. on reasonable terms, and give private lessons in German Text, Old English and every kind of ornamental Penmanship.
